In the midst of the scene we have the story of Peter's blundering scal, as he tire league is assembled in a body, under drew his sword in defense of his Lord, the new plan the members of the four drew his sword in defense of his Lord. The words of Jesus to him are remarkable as they bear upon the whole of the events which followed. In the first place the sword was forbidden. That which Judas did of wickedness, was in the will of God for human redemption, the deliving the first haif hour, each department onducting a study class pertaining to the work of that department. The books used by the central office of the league: For first department, "Church of the Apostel did in devotion, was contrary to the will of God, for it was an attempt to prevent his Master being delivered to death. Therefore the sword must not be used. Only by death and the life won out of it, it can the Divine purpose be fulfilled.

These words show, moreover, that our Lord's going to death was purely voluntary. Close at hand was the possibility of deliverance by a force unutterably superior to anything that hell or earth life of David Livingstone," for the league of David Livingstone, for the league separate during department of the league separate during the first haif hour, each department.
